Gender Birthday
Girl September 19, 2000

Country
Colombia

Yolimar Andrea lives with her mother, 1 brother, and 2 sisters. Her mother struggles to provide for the family.

Yolimar Andrea is growing up in a poor community in Colombia. Typical homes are made of cement, wood, metal and scrap materials. Foods such as rice, brown sugar loaf, grains, plantain, yucca, potatoes and coffee make up the local diet. Average temperatures in the area are between 95 and 105 degrees.

Yolimar Andrea is in primary school and she enjoys drawing. She helps at home with picking up toys. She likes to play with dolls. She is in unsatisfactory health.

Your sponsorship commitment will help provide Yolimar Andrea and her community with school fees, scholarships, health care, special needs care and improved nutrition. In addition, your support provides vocational training to help parents raise the standard of living for their children. Through Christian witness, these precious families will have the chance to learn more about the love and grace of God.
